

Invitation

We are delighted to invite you to the 10th Meeting of the Young Generation of Veterinary Anatomists – YGVA 2019, “United in Veterinary Anatomy by the Danube and Carpathian Land”, to be held from 24th to 26th of July 2019 at the University of Agronomic Sciences and Veterinary Medicine (UASVM) in Bucuresti, Romania.

This meeting is aimed to unite young and very young researchers: BSc-students, MSc-students, PhD-students, Assistant-Professors, Lecturers, and represents an excellent opportunity to exchange experiences regarding the research activity and its consequent problematic, to debate new methodologies or trends outlined for the anatomical and histostructural studies, its clinical applicability, as well as the evolution of its educational side, all of this leading to ideas which are certain to animate the collaboration between European Universities and beyond.

Considering the fact that this meeting is organized once every two years, patronage by the European Association of Veterinary Anatomists/ EAVA, continuously in a different location, the social program will be prepared for all guests to present the Romanian traditions as well as the main tourist points of Bucuresti.

We look forward to welcoming you to celebrate with us this special moment, the 10th YGVA Meeting, in an open, joyful and inspiring atmosphere, maintaining the younger generation’s flow!

On behalf of the Organizing Committee,

Iuliana CAZIMIR and Delia CHERVASE
